Yoshinoyama

Flavorful of the four seasons in Yoshinoyama

For over 25 years we have worked to create a restaurant which is in harmony with Yoshinoyama, a village where the Southern Court settled and an area famous for its cherry blossom. Their reasons for coming may be different, but we are pleased that many people who fall in love with the place come back time after time - including tourists from afar and Buddhists visiting the local temples. We value and respect all these guests. The numbers of visitors who come here to relax and escape the stress of city life for a while have been increasing. We hope that the fresh air and the countryside, together with the warmth and generosity of the locals, will make those who come feel just that little bit better!
